

TUBE UNIONS WINNING ISSUES IN FIGHT WITH TUBE BOSSES

Having got the tube bosses to begin to consider the serious issues over opening up the night service on the tube, the 4 unions involved have suspended their proposed strike action.

The union strength has forced the bosses and Mayor Johnson to move from ideological posturing to serious talks.