ON SUNDAY 4 OCTOBER THE CONSERVATIVE PARTY WILL START THEIR PARTY CONFERENCE IN MANCHESTER

After five years of falling living standards, pay freezes, attacks on social security and huge cuts to public services, this new parliament just promises more of the same for working people and their families.

Trade unions have a proud tradition of standing up for workers, their families and the services everyone uses.

But now the government is threatening the right to strike.

They want to make it harder for workers to speak out – allowing employers to use agency workers to break strikes and putting huge restrictions on pickets and protests. In short, they want to silence millions of union members and threaten their right to strike.

We all need to speak out now. March in Manchester on Sunday 4 October and tell the Conservatives that we say “No!” to austerity, and “Yes!” to workers’ rights.

If you're in Manchester between 3-7 October, The People's Assembly are running a week of anti-austerity events and actions called Take Back Manchester.
